

Based Chad was stealth launched on March 20, 2024, at midnight UTC. Our main goal is to bring a strong community together around the well-known Chad meme. We believe this is an essential inclusion to the larger Base chain ecosystem, and seek to collaborate and integrate with other projects wherever reasonable.

Roadmap

Chad's have no use for roadmaps. We're going to take advantage of opportunities as they come up and position the community to be the most successful of all Base chain meme projects. Our motto is not meant to be clever, it embodies the life of a chad:

1. Wake Up.
2. Chad Harder.
3. Repeat.
